Background information

A fantastic opportunity to join our small and friendly team in a role that offers flexibility and works well around family life. Little Fishes nursery school in Rowledge is managed by St James' Church. We operate in the Church Centre from 9am to 3pm on Monday to Thursday and 9am to 12.30pm on Friday. We offer a full induction programme and continuous training and development opportunities.

Role description

Your duties will include the following:

- To be personally responsible for keeping alert and aware of safeguarding good practise and always operate within the Little Fishes Safeguarding policy.
- To provide safe and creative appropriate play opportunities, preparing activities and offering an appropriate level of support and stimulation to the children.
- To build great relationships with the children and their families, as a key person and be responsible for planning, observing, and assessing the children's learning and development.
- To participate in setting up activities, tidying or packing away and cleaning when necessary. This will require some physical ability in lifting and moving of equipment.
- To work with other team members to implement the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) as part of day to day duties.
- To be a reliable member of the team, working co-operatively and with flexibility as required.
- To understand and work within all other agreed policies, including safeguarding and health and safety.
- To contribute or lead an area of the curriculum.
- To undertake any other reasonable duties as directed by the Nursery School Manager.
- Be willing to attend further training courses and update your skills as required.
